

CANTERVILLE GHOST

April 4, 2005

Dear Activities Coordinator:

Across the Bridge Theatricals is proud to announce the premier of CANTERVILLE GHOST at the SCERA Performing Arts Center on Thursday, October 13, 2005. Featuring artists direct from Broadway, this “dramatic musical comedy” is perfect entertainment for your groups. Come see what critics have called “stylistically diverse...original” and “a hilarious song and dance.”

For a limited time only, we are offering Groups (10+) the chance to reserve the best seats in the house before the general public. As an added incentive, we are also offering a special Group Discount along with other exciting group opportunities:

* Discount Tickets—Groups (10+) will receive a 20% discount on all performances. Groups (50+) will receive a 45% discount on all performances. If your group is 400+, please ask our group sales representative how you can reserve theatre for your group only! Groups Hotline (801) 427-2253.

* Q&A—As an added benefit to groups who attend our Wednesday matinee performances, we will offer a special post-performance Q&A with the cast. Participants can ask the questions they’ve been dying to ask.

* Master Classes—We want to connect your group members with the creative team and cast of CANTERVILLE GHOST by offering special Master Classes tailored to your needs. These classes are limited and will be offered at the SCERA. Call for availability!

CANTERVILLE GHOST is a musical based on the Oscar Wilde short story by the same name. Set in the 1920s, it is the tale of a young American family moving into a medieval English manor haunted by a fine and respectable ghost of the grand tradition; an expert performer and master of his craft. Unfortunately for the ghost, modern American sensibility leaves little room for such nonsense as haunting.

The story maintains the subtle wit and dry humor of the Wilde original by introducing a new character based on Oscar Wilde himself. With a score of more than twenty original songs that span from jazz to pop to Broadway, it’s a musical brimming with contradictions—comedy and drama. It plays liberally with American and British customs, politics, and age-old stereotypes, lampooning both countries to riotous effect.

CANTERVILLE GHOST is playing a limited two-week engagement only! Don’t miss out on what’s sure to be an opportunity of a lifetime. For more information, please call (801) 427-2253.

Sincerely,

Mark Williams
